Index to Volume 48

Volumes 1-20, 21-45, 46 and 47 are indexed in separately-printed indices. Copies will be mailed upon request addressed to the Society at 1155 East 60th Street, Chicago, Ilinois 60637.

Authors

Allard, Bob—Two dozen misconceptions about judicial selection and tenure, co-authored with Glenn R. Winters, 138-144; Judicial discipline and removal plans—a survey and comparative study, 173-176.

Ames, Marion P.—Judicial selection reform—New York's unfinished business, 150-151.

Blackmar, Charles B.—On the removal of judges—the impeachment trial of Samuel Chase, 183-187.

Brennan, William J., Jr.,—Efficient organization and effective administration for today's courts—the citizens' responsibility, 145-149.

Burke, Louis H.—Judicial discipline and removal—the California story, 167-172.

Clark, Tom C.—Roscoe Pound, the man who struck the spark, 45-49.

Coakley, Thomas—Readers asked to send plans (letter), 32.

Cornelius, A. R.—The first Asian judicial conference, 10-16 and 22.

Cottrell, Leonard S., Jr.,—Law and the social sciences: the Russell Sage Foundation program, 217-220.

David, William D.—Book donations are requested from readers for prison library (letter), 74.

Dow, David—Lawyers—trustees for better courts, 68-70.

Editorial—The Herbert Lincoln Harley Fellowship, 3-4; Laymen lead in judicial reform, 4-5; Roscoepoundia, 43; Canon 35 is not enough, 83; 1964 elections vindicate merit plan, 123-124; The dictatorship of irrelevancy, 125; New ways to deal with judicial misconduct, 163-164; Selection reform to continue in appointive states, 165-166; Judicial "Alianza," 203.

Fins, Harry G.—Reducing the cost of appeals, 110-112.

Frankel, Jack E.—Removal of judges—federal and state, 177-182.

Hopkins, James D.—Should all judicial functions be housed in the same building? (letter), 74.

Hunter, Elmo B.—A Missouri judge views judicial selection and tenure, 126-132.

Jacobs, Stanley R.—Waste and the deadlocked jury (letter), 32.

Kenison, Frank R.—The Rationing of Justice—Constitutional Rights and the Criminal Process, by Arnold S. Trebach (book review), 115.

Levinthal, Allen—Minor courts—major problems, 188-192.

Linde, Llewellyn H.—Lawyers and social workers: an emerging joint venture, co-authored with William McRae, 231-234.

McRae, William—Lawyers and social workers: an emerging joint venture, co-authored with Llewellyn H. Linde, 231-234.

Patterson, Robert (artist)—Portrait of Herbert Harley, 156.

Rose, Clayton W.—Continuing Education for Juvenile Court Judges: The NCJCJ Institute and Conference Program, co-authored with Daniel L. Skoler, 225-230.

Rosenman, Samuel I.—A better way to select judges, 86-92.

Ruggles, Charles F.—"Boy Wanted"—quotation and photograph, 116.

Santo, Henry E.—The law explosion and the Denver District Court, 221-224.

Sherlock, D. Grant—The Courts, the Public, and the Law Explosion—the 27th American Assembly at Arden House, 214-216.

Skoler, Daniel L.—Continuing Education for Juvenile Court Judges: The NCJCJ Institute and Conference Program, co-authored with Clayton W. Rose, 225-230.

Sutherland, Arthur E.—A scientist in the law, 65.

Virtue, Maxine B.—Improving metropolitan justice—a guide to court organization, 23-27.

Waterman, Sterry R.—The Mount Sinai of judicial reform in America, 50-52; A Golden Anniversary report, 53.

Webster, Daniel—"Justice, Sir . . ."—quotation and drawing, 36.

Wessell, Milton R.—Controlling prejudicial publicity in criminal trials, 105-109.

Williams, James A.—Civil jury defended (letter), 32.

Winters, Glenn R.—The national movement to improve the administration of justice, 17-22; A report from the executive director . . . the program to improve judicial administration, 55; Two dozen misconceptions about judicial selection and tenure, co-authored with Bob Allard, 138-144; A Ministry of Justice—the time to act is now, 206-213. Also see editorials.

Lawyers

Legal Education

National council announces grants for pilot legal education projects, 29.

Law Office Training of Associates, by Theodore Voorhees (book review), 35.

Law School Curriculum Coverage of Juvenile and Family Court Subjects, NCJCJ Field Research Studies (book review), 235.

Massachusetts—Representation for indigent defendants will be provided by a new course, 160.

New Jersey—Skills course offered in lieu of clerkship, 39.

Ethics and Discipline

Client security funds are spreading across the nation, 72.

Controlling prejudicial publicity in criminal trials, by Milton R. Wessel, 105-109.

Studies of the role of lawyers in juvenile courts, 118.

Tighter safeguards for fair trial by the bar and news media, 158.

Alaska—Mediation team works toward settlement of court-bar dispute, 113-114.

Georgia—An interim disciplinary board, 31.

Massachusetts rejects policing of press by attorney general, 30.

New Jersey and Pennsylvania curb pretrial publicity, 158.

Interprofessional Relations

A new Law and Society Association, 119.

Law and the social sciences: the Russell Sage Foundation Program, by Leonard S. Cottrell, Jr., 217-220.

Lawyers and social workers: an emerging joint venture, by Llewellyn H. Linde and William McRae, 231-234.

Society on Trial, Current Court Decisions and Social Change, by Warren Freedman (book review), 235.

Individual Lawyers

Roscoepoundia, 43.

Society honors Roscoe Pound's 1906 address, 44.

Roscoe Pound, the man who struck the spark, by Tom C. Clark, 45-49.

The Mount Sinai of judicial reform in America, by Sterry R. Waterman, 50-52.

A scientist in the law, by Arthur E. Sutherland, 65.

Lawyers—trustees for better courts, by David Dow, 68-70.

Felix Frankfurter, A Tribute, by Wallace Mendelson (book review), 75.

Legal Organizations

American Judicature Society

New York City bar president to address annual meeting, 5; Reprints in brochure form of "The National Movement to Improve the Administration of Justice," 40; The Mount Sinai of judicial reform in America, by Sterry R. Waterman, 50-52; A Golden Anniversary report, by Sterry R. Waterman, 53; Golden Anniversary leadership . . . the executive committee 1963-1964 (photographs), 54; A report from the executive director . . . the program to improve judicial administration, by Glenn R. Winters, 55; The Society is honored . . . Golden Anniversary meetings, 56; Action programs . . . information, consultation, 60; Literature of judicial administration . . . journal and publications, 61; Widespread support . . . the Society's membership, 62; A sound foundation . . . finances, 63; Professionals serve the Society . . . staff personnel and offices, 64; Woolfenden elected president of Society, 77; Henry L. Woolfenden elected president of Society, 85; The Herbert Harley portrait, 155; Herbert Lincoln Harley, portrait, by Robert Patterson (artist), 156; Orison Marden, 200; Society to assist in hemispheric judicial conference, 204; Municipal judges join Judicature Society, 205; Governor Romney of Michigan to speak at Miami meeting in August, 237-238.

Awards—The Herbert Lincoln Harley Fellowship, Editorial, 3-4; Society honors Roscoe Pound's 1906 address, 44; The Society pays homage . . . Golden Anniversary awards, 57; St. Paul plaque honoring Roscoe Pound's 1906 address, 76; Four judicial reform leaders honored, 77-79; An award for "most significant contribution to the science of jurisprudence," 158-159.

Joint Committee for the Effective Administration of Justice—Partners in citizen education and action . . . the joint committee conferences, 58-59; Kansas court modernization conference to be held in September, 78; Project Effective Justice—a third year report of activities, 93-104.

Other Legal Organizations

Plans are underway to establish a Judicature Society in Argentina, 40.

The integrated bar of India, 40.

Grant will enable National Defender Project to double its effort, 71.

Judicature Society founded in Argentina, 78.

A new Law and Society Association, 119.

Bar Organization and Activities

Alaska—Mediation team works toward settlement of court-bar dispute, 113-114.

Colorado Bar Association acts to restrict judicial campaign practices, 72-73.

Georgia—An interim disciplinary board, 31.

Tennessee lawyers rejected the unified bar by a narrow margin, 31.

Legal Aid

A total of 550,000 civil and criminal cases, 40.

Action urged to improve facilities for defense of indigent defendants, 71.

Index to Volume 48

Volumes 1-20, 21-45, 46 and 47 are indexed in separately-printed indices. Copies will be mailed upon request addressed to the Society at 1155 East 60th Street, Chicago, Ilinois 60637.

Authors

Allard, Bob—Two dozen misconceptions about judicial selection and tenure, co-authored with Glenn R. Winters, 138-144; Judicial discipline and removal plans—a survey and comparative study, 173-176.

Ames, Marion P.—Judicial selection reform—New York's unfinished business, 150-151.

Blackmar, Charles B.—On the removal of judges—the impeachment trial of Samuel Chase, 183-187.

Brennan, William J., Jr.,—Efficient organization and effective administration for today's courts—the citizens' responsibility, 145-149.

Burke, Louis H.—Judicial discipline and removal—the California story, 167-172.

Clark, Tom C.—Roscoe Pound, the man who struck the spark, 45-49.

Coakley, Thomas—Readers asked to send plans (letter), 32.

Cornelius, A. R.—The first Asian judicial conference, 10-16 and 22.

Cottrell, Leonard S., Jr.,—Law and the social sciences: the Russell Sage Foundation program, 217-220.

David, William D.—Book donations are requested from readers for prison library (letter), 74.

Dow, David—Lawyers—trustees for better courts, 68-70.

Editorial—The Herbert Lincoln Harley Fellowship, 3-4; Laymen lead in judicial reform, 4-5; Roscoepoundia, 43; Canon 35 is not enough, 83; 1964 elections vindicate merit plan, 123-124; The dictatorship of irrelevancy, 125; New ways to deal with judicial misconduct, 163-164; Selection reform to continue in appointive states, 165-166; Judicial "Alianza," 203.

Fins, Harry G.—Reducing the cost of appeals, 110-112.

Frankel, Jack E.—Removal of judges—federal and state, 177-182.

Hopkins, James D.—Should all judicial functions be housed in the same building? (letter), 74.

Hunter, Elmo B.—A Missouri judge views judicial selection and tenure, 126-132.

Jacobs, Stanley R.—Waste and the deadlocked jury (letter), 32.

Kenison, Frank R.—The Rationing of Justice—Constitutional Rights and the Criminal Process, by Arnold S. Trebach (book review), 115.

Levinthal, Allen—Minor courts—major problems, 188-192.

Linde, Llewellyn H.—Lawyers and social workers: an emerging joint venture, co-authored with William McRae, 231-234.

McRae, William—Lawyers and social workers: an emerging joint venture, co-authored with Llewellyn H. Linde, 231-234.

Patterson, Robert (artist)—Portrait of Herbert Harley, 156.

Rose, Clayton W.—Continuing Education for Juvenile Court Judges: The NCJCJ Institute and Conference Program, co-authored with Daniel L. Skoler, 225-230.

Rosenman, Samuel I.—A better way to select judges, 86-92.

Ruggles, Charles F.—"Boy Wanted"—quotation and photograph, 116.

Santo, Henry E.—The law explosion and the Denver District Court, 221-224.

Sherlock, D. Grant—The Courts, the Public, and the Law Explosion—the 27th American Assembly at Arden House, 214-216.

Skoler, Daniel L.—Continuing Education for Juvenile Court Judges: The NCJCJ Institute and Conference Program, co-authored with Clayton W. Rose, 225-230.

Sutherland, Arthur E.—A scientist in the law, 65.

Virtue, Maxine B.—Improving metropolitan justice—a guide to court organization, 23-27.

Waterman, Sterry R.—The Mount Sinai of judicial reform in America, 50-52; A Golden Anniversary report, 53.

Webster, Daniel—"Justice, Sir . . ."—quotation and drawing, 36.

Wessell, Milton R.—Controlling prejudicial publicity in criminal trials, 105-109.

Williams, James A.—Civil jury defended (letter), 32.

Winters, Glenn R.—The national movement to improve the administration of justice, 17-22; A report from the executive director . . . the program to improve judicial administration, 55; Two dozen misconceptions about judicial selection and tenure, co-authored with Bob Allard, 138-144; A Ministry of Justice—the time to act is now, 206-213. Also see editorials.

Lawyers

Legal Education

National council announces grants for pilot legal education projects, 29.

Law Office Training of Associates, by Theodore Voorhees (book review), 35.

Law School Curriculum Coverage of Juvenile and Family Court Subjects, NCJCJ Field Research Studies (book review), 235.

Massachusetts—Representation for indigent defendants will be provided by a new course, 160.

New Jersey—Skills course offered in lieu of clerkship, 39.

Ethics and Discipline

Client security funds are spreading across the nation, 72.

Controlling prejudicial publicity in criminal trials, by Milton R. Wessel, 105-109.

Studies of the role of lawyers in juvenile courts, 118.

Tighter safeguards for fair trial by the bar and news media, 158.

Alaska—Mediation team works toward settlement of court-bar dispute, 113-114.

Georgia—An interim disciplinary board, 31.

Massachusetts rejects policing of press by attorney general, 30.

New Jersey and Pennsylvania curb pretrial publicity, 158.

Interprofessional Relations

A new Law and Society Association, 119.

Law and the social sciences: the Russell Sage Foundation Program, by Leonard S. Cottrell, Jr., 217-220.

Lawyers and social workers: an emerging joint venture, by Llewellyn H. Linde and William McRae, 231-234.

Society on Trial, Current Court Decisions and Social Change, by Warren Freedman (book review), 235.

Individual Lawyers

Roscoepoundia, 43.

Society honors Roscoe Pound's 1906 address, 44.

Roscoe Pound, the man who struck the spark, by Tom C. Clark, 45-49.

The Mount Sinai of judicial reform in America, by Sterry R. Waterman, 50-52.

A scientist in the law, by Arthur E. Sutherland, 65.

Lawyers—trustees for better courts, by David Dow, 68-70.

Felix Frankfurter, A Tribute, by Wallace Mendelson (book review), 75.

Legal Organizations

American Judicature Society

New York City bar president to address annual meeting, 5; Reprints in brochure form of "The National Movement to Improve the Administration of Justice," 40; The Mount Sinai of judicial reform in America, by Sterry R. Waterman, 50-52; A Golden Anniversary report, by Sterry R. Waterman, 53; Golden Anniversary leadership . . . the executive committee 1963-1964 (photographs), 54; A report from the executive director . . . the program to improve judicial administration, by Glenn R. Winters, 55; The Society is honored . . . Golden Anniversary meetings, 56; Action programs . . . information, consultation, 60; Literature of judicial administration . . . journal and publications, 61; Widespread support . . . the Society's membership, 62; A sound foundation . . . finances, 63; Professionals serve the Society . . . staff personnel and offices, 64; Woolfenden elected president of Society, 77; Henry L. Woolfenden elected president of Society, 85; The Herbert Harley portrait, 155; Herbert Lincoln Harley, portrait, by Robert Patterson (artist), 156; Orison Marden, 200; Society to assist in hemispheric judicial conference, 204; Municipal judges join Judicature Society, 205; Governor Romney of Michigan to speak at Miami meeting in August, 237-238.

Awards—The Herbert Lincoln Harley Fellowship, Editorial, 3-4; Society honors Roscoe Pound's 1906 address, 44; The Society pays homage . . . Golden Anniversary awards, 57; St. Paul plaque honoring Roscoe Pound's 1906 address, 76; Four judicial reform leaders honored, 77-79; An award for "most significant contribution to the science of jurisprudence," 158-159.

Joint Committee for the Effective Administration of Justice—Partners in citizen education and action . . . the joint committee conferences, 58-59; Kansas court modernization conference to be held in September, 78; Project Effective Justice—a third year report of activities, 93-104.

Other Legal Organizations

Plans are underway to establish a Judicature Society in Argentina, 40.

The integrated bar of India, 40.

Grant will enable National Defender Project to double its effort, 71.

Judicature Society founded in Argentina, 78.

A new Law and Society Association, 119.

Bar Organization and Activities

Alaska—Mediation team works toward settlement of court-bar dispute, 113-114.

Colorado Bar Association acts to restrict judicial campaign practices, 72-73.

Georgia—An interim disciplinary board, 31.

Tennessee lawyers rejected the unified bar by a narrow margin, 31.

Legal Aid

A total of 550,000 civil and criminal cases, 40.

Action urged to improve facilities for defense of indigent defendants, 71.

Grant will enable National Defender Project to double its effort, 71.
The right to counsel has been extended into the police interrogation room, 73.
The Rationing of Justice—Constitutional Rights and the Criminal Process, by Arnold S. Trebach (book review by Frank R. Kenison), 115.
Equal Justice for the Poor, by Monrad Paulsen (book review), 235.
Arizona—a 50 per cent reduction of remanded criminal cases, 159.
Federal—Plans to implement the criminal justice act move ahead, 114.
Massachusetts—Representation for indigent defendants will be provided by a new course, 160.

Judges

One Man's Stand for Freedom, Mr. Justice Black and the Bill of Rights, by Irving Dillard (book review), 33.
Felix Frankfurter, A Tribute, by Wallace Mendelson (book review), 75.
650 Illinois constables, including 150 in Cook County, would be abolished, 200.

Education of Judges

Project effective justice—a third year report of activities, 93-104.
Continuing education for juvenile court judges: The NCJCJ Institute and Conference Program, by Daniel L. Skoler and Clayton W. Rose, 224-230.
California judicial council broadens judicial seminar program, 199.
New York—The summer training program for town and village lay justices, 31.

Selection of Judges

Rosenman urges Society's judicial selection plan at annual meeting, 77.
1964 elections vindicate merit plan, Editorial, 123-124.
The dictatorship of irrelevancy, Editorial, 125.
Two dozen misconceptions about judicial selection and tenure, by Glenn R. Winters and Bob Allard, 138-144.
Selection reform to continue in appointive states, Editorial, 165-166.
Alaska, Iowa, Kansas, Missouri, Nebraska—Variations of the Society's merit plan, judicial selection and tenure, 133-137.
Colorado—Judicial organization and selection improvements recommended for Denver, 39; Bipartisan commission to select Denver judges; voters approve plan by 2 to 1 vote, 117-118; Governor and mayor appoint commissions, Colorado uses merit plan, 154.
Florida—The new judicial selection and tenure plan of Dade County, 159.
Illinois—The results of the 1964 judicial election, 200.
Massachusetts governor is fourth to adopt nominating commission, 157.
Missouri—A Missouri judge views judicial selection and tenure, by Elmo B. Hunter, 126-132; Merit judicial selection—citizens endorse Missouri plan, 196; Extending merit judicial selection, 241.
New York—A better way to select judges, by Samuel I. Rosenman, 86-92; Judicial selection reform—New York's unfinished business, by Marion P. Ames, 150-151; Merit judicial selection for New York City judges, 240.
North Dakota citizens conference approves selection plan, 117; North Dakota legislature approves merit selection plan for all state judges, 197.
Ohio—Society's merit selection plan included in Ohio court proposal, 158; Ohio judges approve judicial reform proposals, 240.
Oklahoma—A proposed constitutional amendment for nonpartisan appointive-elective judicial selection, 70-80.

Courtroom publicity

Controlling prejudicial publicity in criminal trials, by Milton R. Wessel, 105-109.
Canon 35 is not enough, Editorial, 83.
Illinois—Photographing and televising courtroom proceedings are prohibited in Illinois, 80.
Massachusetts rejects policing of press by attorney general, 30.

Judicial Salaries and Retirement

California, New Hampshire, Rhode Island, Wisconsin—Four states raise judges' salaries, 30-31.
Federal—The first federal judicial salary increases since 1955 took effect on July 1, 1964, 79.
Idaho—Minor court reform, 241.
Montana, Wisconsin—An amendment to Montana's constitution, 119.
Ohio judges approve judicial reform proposals, 240.

Ethics and Discipline

The Corrupt Judge, by Joseph Borkin (book review), 34.
Canon 28 of the American Bar Association's Code of Judicial Ethics prohibiting "partisan political" activity, 40.
New ways to deal with judicial misconduct, Editorial, 163-164.
Removal of judges—federal and state, by Jack E. Frankel, 177-182.
On the removal of judges—the impeachment trial of Samuel Chase, by Charles B. Blackmar, 183-187.
California—Judicial discipline and removal—the California story, by Louis H. Burke, 167-172.
California, Colorado, Florida, New Mexico, Texas—Judicial discipline and removal plans—a survey and comparative study, by Bob Allard, 173-176.
Colorado Bar Association acts to restrict judicial campaign practices, 72-73.
Maryland—A proposal to establish a judicial removal and retirement commission 80; Governor J. Millard Tawes last month endorsed the proposal to establish a five-member commission, 119; Removal of judges for disability, incompetence or neglect of duties, 199.
Nebraska—Commission plan for judicial retirement, discipline and removal approved, 237.
New York judges told to sever business connections, 198.
Ohio judges approve judicial reform proposals, 238-239.
Oklahoma judicial scandal still spreading after 12 months, 238; Judicial amendments were approved, 119.
Pennsylvania—Canons of judicial ethics, 200.
Wyoming—Judicial amendments were approved, 119.

Courts

Improving metropolitan justice—a guide to court organization, by Maxine B. Virtue, 23-27.
The Wisdom of the Supreme Court, by Percival E. Jackson (book review), 35.
The Making of Justice, by James E. Clayton (book review), 235.
Michigan's new Court of Appeals began operation on January 1, 160.
Tennessee—A single metropolitan court would be established for Chattanooga, 31.

Court Organization

Improving metropolitan justice—a guide to court organization, by Maxine B. Virtue, 23-27.
Readings in American National Government, by MacDonald, Webb, Lewis, and Strauss (book review), 75.
Efficient organization and effective administration for today's courts—the citizens' responsibility, by William J. Brennan, Jr., 145-149.
Ten years of court reorganization reforms—a selected chronological survey, 193-195.
New Mexico—Court modernization measures approved by legislature, 238.
North Carolina—Implementation of uniform court system, 241.

Courts of Limited Monetary and Misdemeanor Jurisdiction

Minor courts—major problems, by Allen Levinthal, 188-192.
Municipal judges join Judicature Society, 205.
Delaware governor sponsors magistrate reform program, 198-199.
Idaho—Minor court reform, 241.
Minnesota—The opening of the Hennepin County Municipal Court, 200.
New Mexico—Court modernization measures approved by legislature, 238.
New York—The summer training program for town and village lay justices, 31.
North Carolina—Implementation of uniform court system, 241.
Tennessee—Urban Justice: Municipal Courts in Tennessee, by Richard George Sheridan (book review), 235.

Courts of Special Jurisdiction

A marriage conciliation and counseling service as an arm of Cook County (Chicago) Circuit Court, 73.
Law School Curriculum Coverage of Juvenile and Family Court Subjects, NCJCJ Field Research Studies (book review), 235.

Juvenile Courts

Proceedings of Juvenile Court Probation Town Meeting for Judges (book review), 33.
One Court of Justice and Its Administrative Services to Children, Conference Proceedings of Children's Charter of Juvenile Courts (book review), 34.
A View from the Bench, The Juvenile Court, by Justine Wise Polier (book review), 34.
A one-year field study of judge-boy communications in juvenile courts, 40.
Studies of the role of lawyers in juvenile courts, 118.
Continuing education for juvenile court judges: The NCJCJ Institute and Conference Program, 225-230.
Law School Curriculum Coverage of Juvenile and Family Court Subjects, NCJCJ Field Research Studies (book review), 235.
Utah juvenile courts freed from welfare control, 240.

Court Administration

Colorado—A master docket system has been adopted, 159; The law explosion and the Denver District Court, by Henry E. Santo, 221-224.
New Jersey—A central file of the essential information on the status of the case of every defendant, 73.
Oklahoma, Wyoming—Judicial amendments were approved, 119.
Pennsylvania—Space age electronics speed the wheels of justice, 37-39.
Wisconsin—A judicial conference has been created, 73.

Courthouse and Courtroom

Readers asked to send plans, by Judge Thomas Coakley (letter), 32.
Should all judicial functions be housed in the same building? by James D. Hopkins (letter), 74.
Oregon—Photographs of Judge William S. Fort's courtroom in the Lane County Court House, Eugene, 31.
Wisconsin—To upgrade courtroom facilities, 73.

Court Congestion and Delay

Improving metropolitan justice—a guide to court organization, by Maxine B. Virtue, 23-27.
The Courts on Trial: Verdict and Remedy, by Ralph C. Hoeber (book review), 34.

The personal injury backlog is still critical, but improving, 80.
Court congestion cures sought across the nation, 120.
California—To reduce the number of personal injury cases on the docket of Los Angeles Superior Court, 120; Rules requiring attorneys to proceed to trial immediately, 159.
Colorado—The establishment of an intermediate appellate court, 120.
Federal—Increased dispositions did not keep pace with record filings in the federal courts, 120.
Illinois—12,000 cases were removed from the backlog, 159.
Maryland—Backlog of civil cases, 241.
New York—Disposal of automobile accident cases by administrative determination, 120.
Pennsylvania—Space age electronics speed the wheels of justice, 37-39; The Philadelphia Common Pleas Court has attacked continuances, 149.

Procedure

Criminal Procedure

Laymen lead in judicial reform, Editorial, 4-5.
Punishment before trial—abuses in pretrial detention and bail, 6-9.
Current Projects in the Prevention, Control and Treatment of Crime and Delinquency, by National Research and Information Center of the National Council on Crime and Delinquency (book review), 33.
Penology, by Barbara A. Kay and Clyde B. Vedder (book review), 33.
Probation and Parole, by Barbara A. Kay and Clyde B. Vedder (book review), 33.
Probation and Parole, by Reed K. Clegg (book review), 33.
Sourcebook on Probation, Parole and Pardons, by Charles L. Newman (book review), 33.
The right to counsel has been extended into the police interrogation room, 73.
Psychiatry and Criminal Law—Illusions, Fictions, and Myths, by Sol Rubin (book review), 235.
Pennsylvania—New rules of criminal procedure for all courts, 80.

Appellate Procedure

Reducing the cost of appeals, by Harry G. Fins, 110-112.
Georgia rules of appellate procedure, 200.

Pre-trial Procedure

California—Certificate of readiness expedites Los Angeles cases, 39; To reduce the number of personal injury cases on the docket of Los Angeles Superior Court, 120.
California and New Jersey—Studies of pre-trial procedures completed, 29-30.
The Pre-Trial Conference and Effective Justice, by Maurice Rosenberg (book review), 235.
Minnesota—A volunteer lawyer-referee plan to expedite pre-trial conference and settlement, 159.

Jury Trial

Civil jury defended, by James A. Williams (letter), 32.
Waste and the deadlocked jury (letter), by Stanley R. Jacobs, 32.
Trial by Jury, by Samuel W. McCart (book review), 75.
A two-year experiment with six-man juries, 160.
New York—Disposal of automobile accident cases by administrative determination, 120.

Evidence and Civil Procedure

Standardization of court procedure, 200.
Federal—Warren appoints committee to revise evidence rules, 198.
Pennsylvania—New rules of criminal procedure for all courts, 80.

Miscellaneous

The Language of the Law, by David Melinkoff (book review), 35.
Book donations are requested from readers for prison library, by William D. David, 74.
Law, by James E. Eichner (book review), 75.
"Boy Wanted"—quotation and photograph, Charles F. Ruggles, 116.
A broad investigation of federal courts, 160.
A Ministry of Justice—the time to act is now, by Glenn R. Winters, 206-213.

Promotion of Judicial Reform

The national movement to improve the administration of justice, by Glenn R. Winters, 17-22.
Reprints in brochure form of "The National Movement to Improve the Administration of Justice," 40.
The Courts, the Public, and the Law Explosion—the 27th American Assembly at Arden House, by D. Grant Sherlock, 214-216.
What court reform can do for you, 236.
Governor Romney of Michigan to speak at Miami meeting in August, 237-238.
Idaho—Minor court reform, 241.
Indiana legislature approves bipartisan judicial study commission, 197-198.
Montana, Wyoming, Oklahoma—Judicial improvements go to the voters in three states next month, 113.
Pennsylvania—The fight for judicial reform is just beginning, 28-29.

Conferences and Conventions

The first Asian judicial conference, by A. R. Cornelius, 10-16 and 22.
Project effective justice—a third year report of activities, 93-104.
The Courts, the Public, and the Law Explosion—the 27th American Assembly at Arden House, by D. Grant Sherlock, 214-216.
Florida—Court modernization conferences to continue, 152-153.
Kansas court modernization conference to be held in September, 78.
Ohio judges approve judicial reform proposals, 240.
North Dakota citizens' conference approves selection plan, 117.
Rhode Island—A constitutional convention, 200.

Lay Support

Laymen lead in judicial reform, Editorial, 4-5.
Efficient organization and effective administration for today's courts—the citizens' responsibility, by William J. Brennan, Jr., 145-149.
Florida—Court modernization conferences to continue, 152-153.
Florida, Pennsylvania—Two more state citizen organizations formed, 239-240.
Pennsylvania—The fight for judicial reform in Pennsylvania is just beginning, 28-29.

Legal Philosophy and Constitutional History

Freedom and Protection, the Bill of Rights, by Andrew D. Weinberger (book review), 33.
One Man's Stand for Freedom, Mr. Justice Black and the Bill of Rights, by Irving Dillard (book review), 33.
The Holy Bible and the Law, by J. W. Erlich (book review), 35.
In Brief Authority, by Francis Biddle (book review), 75.
The History of Liberty, by Henry Wilson (book review), 235.
The Case for Liberty, by Helen Hill Miller (book review), 235.

International and Comparative Law

The first Asian judicial conference, by A. R. Cornelius, 10-16 and 22.
Court and Constitution in Japan, Selected Supreme Court Decisions, 1948-60, by John M. Maki (book review), 75.
Plans are underway to establish a Judicature Society in Argentina, 40; Judicature Society founded in Argentina, 78.
World peace through law conference set for September, 199.
Judicial "Alianza," Editorial, 203.
Society to assist in hemispheric judicial conference, 204.
The English Bar: A Priesthood. The Tribute of an American Lawyer, by Barnett Hollander (book review), 235.

Book Reviews

Biddle, Francis, In Brief Authority, 75.
Borkin, Joseph, The Corrupt Judge, 34.
Clayton, James E., The Making of Justice, 235.
Clegg, Reed K., Probation and Parole, 33.
Children's Charter of the Juvenile Courts of Mich., Inc., Juvenile Probation Town Meeting for Judges, co-sponsored with Michigan Probate and Juvenile Judges Assoc., 33; One Court of Justice and Its Administrative Services to Children, 34.
Dillard, Irving, One Man's Stand for Freedom, Mr. Justice Black and the Bill of Rights, 33.
Eichner, James E., Law, 75.
Erlich, J. W., The Holy Bible and the Law, 35.
Freedman, Warren, Society on Trial. Current Court Decisions and Social Change, 235.
Hankin, Faye, The American Lawyer: 1964 Statistical Report, co-authored with Duane W. Krohnke, 235.
Hoeber, Ralph C., The Courts on Trial: Verdict and Remedy, 34.
Hollander, Barnett, The English Bar: A Priesthood. The Tribute of an American Lawyer, 235.
Jackson, Percival E., The Wisdom of the Supreme Court, 35.
Kay, Barbara A., Penology and Probation and Parole, co-authored with Clyde B. Vedder, 33.
MacDonald, Webb, Louis, and Strauss, Readings in American National Government, 75.
Maki, John M., Court and Constitution in Japan, Selected Supreme Court Decisions, 1948-60, 75.
McCart, Samuel W., Trial by Jury, 75.
Melinkoff, David, The Language of the Law, 35.
Mendelson, Wallace, Felix Frankfurter, A Tribute, 75.
Miller, Helen Hill, The Case for Liberty, 235.
NRIC of National Council on Crime and Delinquency, Current Projects in the Prevention, Control and Treatment of Crime and Delinquency, 33.
NCJCJ Field Research Studies, Law School Curriculum Coverage of Juvenile and Family Court Subjects, 235.
Newman, Charles L., Sourcebook on Probation, Parole and Pardons, 33.
Paulsen, Monrad, Equal Justice for the Poor, 235.
Polier, Justine Wise, A View from the Bench, The Juvenile Court, 34.
Rosenberg, Maurice, The Pre-Trial Conference and Effective Justice, 235.
Rubin, Sol, Psychiatry and Criminal Law—Illusions, Fictions and Myths, 235.
Sheridan, Richard George, Urban Justice: Municipal Courts in Tennessee, 235.
Trebach, Arnold S., The Rationing of Justice—Constitutional Rights and the Criminal Process, reviewed by Frank R. Kenison, 115.
Voorhees, Theodore, Law Office Training of Associates, 35.
Weinberger, Andrew D., Freedom and Protection, the Bill of Rights, 33.
Wilson, Henry, The History of Liberty, 235.